— Discovering God: The Origins of the Great Religions and the Evolution of Belief

by Rodney Stark

Rodney Stark is a sociologist of religion who manages to be both scholarly and engaging. Join us as we explore and discuss this book. We will find fertile material for discussion in this, his latest book.

Meets: Wednesday nights May 28, June 4, 11, and 18 from 6:30 – 8:00

Leader: The Rev. Ron Smith

— Couples Spirituality

Many couples desire to share their faith life but are uncertain how to do so in the community of their home. This group will be four sessions exploring how with different personalities and spirituality types we may find common ground to support individual and shared spiritual growth.

Meets: Wednesday nights June 25, July 2, 9, and 16 from 6:30 – 8:00

Leaders: The Revs. David and Cathy Boyd

— Sharing Our Stories of Faith

In this small group, we hope to identify what God has done and is doing in our lives, while sharing our own stories and enjoying the stories of others. The stories may not be grand or eloquent, but the experiences of God are always powerful.

Meets: Wednesday nights August 6, 13, 20, 27 from 6:30 – 8:00

Leader: The Rev. Mary Vano

As Christians we are called to have a balanced life of prayer, study, fellowship and service to our neighbors. Journey groups seek to provide us with small communities in which we can seek, learn and grow in all these areas. Wherever you are on your own path, we invite you to find a group both to serve and be served.
