NEW NAME AND LOOK FOR COFFEE SHOP

St. David's store, now known as Holy Grounds, has recently undergone many exciting changes. Parishioners have been asking for a store that is more sustainable, and we have done just that! Our focus is on local artists, fair trade items, and environmentally-friendly goods. Entering the store, you'll see a jewelry display by Jeep Collins, making our coffee shop one of the few places in Austin where this line is carried. In our newly expanded book section, you will find handmade prayer beads by Austin-based company Fiber Figments. We also have a new selection of tote bags, journals, and pocket books, all fair trade and made from recycled materials. We're excited about the Haitian Metal Art, made from recycled oil cans and uniquely shaped with a nail and hammer. In the food department, we feature Lamme's premium chocolates, Michael Season's local chips, and of course, baked goods and panini's by our own Chef Ray. We have many more items on the way, so come check in with us often and be sure to "like" us on Facebook (www.facebook.com/myaustincoffee) and Twitter (search Holy Grounds Cafe) to learn about daily food specials and new merchandise. Thank you to everyone who has supported our shop!

TODAY: SUPER BOWL BRISKET SALES: Bar-b-que sandwiches are available for purchase today for $5 each!

NEXT SUNDAY: THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION SUNDAY: Each year Seminary of the Southwest partners with individual parishes to educate congregations about theological education and strengthen parish/seminary relations. Next Sunday, we will welcome members of the seminary community to preach and lead our Adult Education hour. By hosting a Southwest Theological Education Sunday program, we hope you will gain a better understanding of where clergy come from and how they are formed, as well as the critical role Seminary of the Southwest plays in providing leadership to the Church in the world.

SEE THE DIFFERENCE YOUR SUPPORT MAKES: While you may be aware that St. David’s has a tradition of outreach in the community, you may not realize all the places our ministries have made a difference! A new video, posted on the St. David’s home page (www.stdave.org), highlights the impact our church has had throughout the years. St. David’s outreach is only possible through the support of parishioners. Please make your 2012 pledge now so we can make outreach—and all ministries—even stronger. Every pledge makes a difference!

BRIDGE BUILDERS OUTREACH SIGN-UP: Please pick up a Bridge Builders brochure in the lobby to learn more about expanded outreach efforts at St. David’s. Fill out and return the information section to the collection plate or the box in the lobby. Email a Bridge Builders member if you’re interested in getting involved!

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT WORKSHOP: This 6-week workshop will be lead by parishioner Daniel Hope, who is working on his counseling license through the Seminary of the Southwest. The workshop begins Thursday, February 16, and continues each Thursday evening until March 29 (no workshop during Spring Break). This event is free to St. David’s couples, and there are spots for 6 couples. Email Daniel at daniel.hope@ssw.edu for more details and to register.

ST. DAVID’S DAY SCHOOL FUNDRAISER: St. David’s Day School is holding its spring fundraiser on Saturday, March 3, in Sumners Hall. The evening will feature a “social hour,” dinner, a large silent auction and awesome music by the “Bells of Joy.” All Church members and Day School parents are invited. Bring friends, your checkbook for some great silent auction deals, and your dancing shoes. The “Bells of Joy” will have you on the dance floor!

Tickets are $50 per person and may be purchased in advance through Laura Faulk at laura.f@stdave.org.

MEMORIAL GIFTS AND GIFTS IN THANKSGIVING HONOR LOVED ONES: St. David’s is honored by those who remember or pay tribute to friends and loved ones through a gift to the St. David’s Church Foundation. A report of all gifts received in memory and in thanksgiving during 2011 is available outside the Sanctuary and in the Lobby. Going forward, we will be recognizing these gifts several times during the year. These donations support the church endowment funds, which live on in perpetuity, providing long-term support for the church and its ministries.

CALLING ALL MOMS: The Friday Morning Moms group meets each Friday from 10 a.m. to noon in the Guild Room. It is a great opportunity to connect with other moms, support one another in personal and spiritual growth, and share in the parenting journey. Free child care is provided in the nursery. Please join us! For more information- or to be added to the group list-serve for scheduling updates- email carolinejoiner@mac.com.

GIRLS NIGHT OUT!: All girls in grades 8-12 are invited to Girls Night Out at St. David’s on Friday, February 10, 5:30-9 p.m. Dinner and desserts will be provided. Join us for eating contests, cookie baking, game playing, nail painting, chick flick watching, and more! Please RSVP to Mary Ashton at mary.a@stdave.org before February 8.

BARBARA JORDAN CELEBRATION: Every year, Trinity Center hosts a celebration remembering our generous benefactor Barbara Jordan to raise awareness and support for our programs that serve people experiencing homelessness. Proceeds are a significant fundraiser for Trinity Center and support our mission of improving the spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being of people experiencing homelessness and poverty, our “neighbors” in downtown Austin. Please plan to join us for this thought-provoking event on Thursday, February 23, 5:30-7:30 p.m. in Bethell Hall. Tickets are available online and by check. Please visit our website at www.trinitycenteraustin.org for details.

NEXT-TO-NEWS: Resolutions and year-end reflections are commonplace this time of year. What’s not so common is looking at the incredibly faithful achievements-through-ministry of your N2N Shop. Last year saw nearly $412,000 paid to consignors. You read that right! Over $34,000 each month, on average, is joyfully passed back to consignors. True, some of them are dutiful regulars, but some are as new as yesterday. Why not join in this ideal stewardship of recycling? This year promises just as much business and popularity and pay-offs. Please consider your part. Most inquiries can be answered at www.next2new.org or by calling 459-1288. Remember: we’re open late on Thursdays until 7 p.m.
